

Cultural Preservation & Community Capacity Building Forum

Join us for a two-day forum focusing on African Nova Scotian cultural preservation and community capacity building. We are bringing together students, educators and community members for thought-provoking discussions and podcast recordings on past accomplishments and future opportunities for African Nova Scotian communities.

Wednesday, February 21 &
Thursday, February 22, 2024

9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. both days

CLARI (Atrium 340), Saint Mary's University 923 Robie Street, Halifax

Hosted by the Loyalist Connections Creative Society in collaboration with the Black Cultural Centre and Saint Mary's University Faculty of Arts, in recognition of the UN International Decade for People of African Descent (2015-2024).

The heart of it: This event is about keeping traditions alive, empowering communities and preserving our history as African Nova Scotians.
